SERVES HIS TERM; AGAIN ARRESTED

Saw Taxicab for First Time, and Entered It as Prisoner.

TO FACE TRIAL FOR MURDER

Young Miner Had Developed Into Landscape Artist and Musician.

Philadelphia, July 2.—After serving twenty-two years in the State penitentiary here for the killing of a man in a brawl in Lykens, Pa. in 1889, Sydney Ware, by virtue of a pardon granted by Governor Tener, walked through the private gate yesterday a free man, but the moment he stepped into the street a deputy sheriff from Harrisburg placed him under arrest and took him to the State capital to stand trial for the murder of a second man he is charged with having killed in the same brawl.

When Ware stepped out a free man he saw a taxicab for the first time, and in it he was whisked away to the railroad station. Ware had been informed that he would be rearrested, and expressed himself as confident of an acquittal.

Ware's case has attracted much attention in the State, and influential persons intend to come to his assistance. Ware was a young miner when the crime was committed, and during his long term he was a model prisoner. He was a student, and became a landscape artist and a musician.

Three years ago Ware was converted to the Episcopal church, and was confirmed by the bishop, and it was largely through the efforts of Bishop Durlington, of Harrisburg, that he was granted a pardon. When the district court of Dauphin county learned that Ware was to be freed, he looked up his record and found that he was convicted for only one of the murders, and that the second charge was still hanging over him. He will be tried in September.

Dr. Howell arranged the State Board of Education for the manner in which it has held up for Mr. McChesney, when it realized that the local board had strongly opposed him. He declared that the State board had treated the local board with absolute want of respect, and intimated that he would rather than a sense of justice had controlled the course of a majority of the board.
